LEON HESS, Chairman of the Board

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Chairman of the Board Leon Hess showed his desire to return the club to the forefront of the NFL in 1977 when he revamped the club's administration and overall operation of the team.

Hess has shown patience and commitment towards building a solid foundation. He has stood behind the Jets' building program and has seen the club remodel with a mix of veterans and young players to mold for the present and future.

Hess has also fought long and hard to achieve first-class conditions for both the players and fans throughout the years. For a decade the Jets were never allowed to play home games before their fans during the baseball season but that all changed in 1978 when the Jets were guaranteed at least four early season home games.

After citing Shea Stadium as "the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike", Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result last season, thousands of additional Jets' fans had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern, clean surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sight-lines.

In addition, Hess continued to provide the Jets' players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern lockerroom at the Meadowlands and by installing a new AstroTurf field and an improved weightroom at the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University.

In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Dinner. Past winners of that award have included Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, now the sole owner, has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. He is chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his eight seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has exhibited strong leadership. Under his guidance, the Jets qualified for the playoffs for the first time in 12 years in 1981 and came within one game of the Super Bowl in 1982.

Following the disappointing 1983-84 campaigns, Kensil worked closely with Joe Walton, Jim Royer and Mike Hickey to return the Jets to the playoffs by making trades and drafting wisely to bolster the club for the present and future.

During Kensil's tenure as president, the organization has emphasized the building of the club through the draft. In that time the draft has provided 41 players including 19 starters, 3 of whom were named to the Pro Bowl in 1984.

Kensil, who was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977, was an administrator for the NFL for 16 years, nine as executive director and seven as director of public relations. Commissioner Pete Rozelle called Kensil, "my offensive and defensive coordinator."

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. Kensil also serves as a member of the board of directors.

Kensil, is a member of the executive committee of NFL Properties and is on the board of the Bert Bell NFL Retirement Plan.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions and was one of the chief architects of the present NFL scheduling format.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. In 1952 he joined the AP in New York prior to serving in the Army in Germany as editor of the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 where he covered sports, edited the wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on TV and radio. He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as P.R. director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, PA. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 29, is traveling secretary for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 27 and Danny 23, and a daughter, Mary Jo 25.

JOE WALTON, Head Coach

"My feeling is that last year we established the work habits and the competition factor and I'm not going to go off course," said Joe Walton entering his third year as head coach. "It's what I believe. I believe in competition and hard work and I believe if you play hard every week, you've got a chance to win and nothing is going to change my mind about that.

"It should only be natural that the experience gained by our young players last year (22 of 49-man roster was composed of first or second-year players) should help us improve, but we have to stay healthy and be able to go the full 16-game route."

"We also made a big change on defense going from the 4-3 to the 3-4. I like our defensive theory of being aggressive and moving people around. I felt our defense needed a change, needed a challenge," Walton concluded.

To assist him in strengthening the defense, Walton added the highly regarded Bud Carson to his staff to serve as defensive coordinator. Besides Carson taking over the defense, Walton also hired Dan Radakovich to handle the linebackers, Bill Austin to tutor the offensive line and created a new position in naming Zeke Bratkowski quarterback coach. Walton also promoted receiver and passing game coordinator Rich Kotite to offensive coordinator.

"I feel that the new coaches have had great experience at winning ...they've been involved in winning programs, they've coached in championship games and Super Bowls, they have great backgrounds," said Walton.

Walton suffered through a frustrating year in 1984 that was best summed-up when starting LCB Bobby Jackson sustained a pulled hamstring muscle during pre-game stretching in the lockerroom prior to player introductions in the fifth game of the season and didn't play again.

Actually, it was a "Tale of Two Seasons". The Jets got off to a surprising 6-2 start with legitimate playoff hopes, but the season began to unravel with consecutive losses to New England and Miami while injuries began to mount (three DBs went down in the Miami loss and QB Pat Ryan sustained a pair of concussions in a three-week period) and the needed depth simply wasn't there.

Walton is hopeful that the 1985 draft will provide the organization with the type of competitive player that the '84 draft did when nine players made the squad. He is working hard on the development of two young quarterbacks—Pat Ryan and Ken O'Brien, who he feels can win in the NFL; and is enthusiastic about the switch to the 3-4 and a more aggressive defense.

And Walton will also continue to stress his philosophy of the game—hard work, dedication and enthusiasm breeding success.

"Joe wants a more physical football team," said center Joe Fields. "He wants us to play 60 minutes for 16 games — scratch, bite, kick. Whatever we have to do."

Walton took over as head coach in February, 1983, after serving as the Jets' offensive coordinator the previous two seasons, where he played a major role in the club's successive appearances in the playoffs. With Walton calling the plays, the Jets' offense ranked third in the NFL in the 1982 regular season and produced 454.0 yards per game in playoff victories against Cincinnati and the Raiders.

"Joe Walton brought stability to our offense," said Fields. "He has the knack of patting you when you need it and kicking you in the butt when you need it. He seems to know who to do it to and whom not."

Walton's value is recognized by not only the Jets, but others in the world of professional football.

"I remember Pat Summerall (Walton's teammate on the 1961-63 Giants) telling me that Joe Walton was the smartest player on the field," said CBS color commentator and former NFL coach John Madden. "He said that Joe knew what every player was doing on every play. You had to have him in the huddle."

"I always felt Joe had one of the most creative minds in football," said Hall of Fame QB Y.A. Tittle. "He was trying things way before others did. He was one of the first people to use men in motion. In 1970, he was way ahead of most of the passing theorists in the NFL, the way he dictated what a defense had to do."

Walton joined the Jets in 1981 after coaching with Washington from 1974 and serving as its offensive coordinator since 1978. He is credited with the development of Redskin QB Joe Theismann. Under Walton, Theismann was the second highest rated passer in the NFL in 1979 behind Roger Staubach. Washington experienced only one losing season during his seven years there while compiling a 61-43 record.

"Joe Walton is a special kind of guy," said Theismann. "We became two bodies in one mind while he was here. In his last three years here, I spent more time with Joe than I had with any one member of my own family. I consider the time I was with him an invaluable experience."

Walton was in charge of the receivers and passing game for the Giants from 1969-73. He tutored both Fran Tarkenton and Norm Snead during that era. Snead won the NFL passing championship and went to the Pro Bowl in Walton's last season with the Giants, 1973. Tarkenton went to the Pro Bowl under Walton in 1969 and 1970. Walton did some radio work before joining the Giants' staff as a scout from 1967-68.

Walton was Washington's second round draft choice in 1957 and played four seasons before being traded to the Giants in 1961. He played tight end for the Giants, who won championships in all three seasons he played there. Walton caught 95 passes for 1,321 yards and 17 TDs during that time.

In his overall career he caught 178 passes for 2,623 yards and 26 TDs. Walton was called by Y.A. Tittle "the best third down receiver in the game, bar none", while Walton claims that "Tittle was probably the most influential man in my ideas about the passing game and total offensive picture".

Walton, despite standing only 5 feet 10 inches and weighing 185 pounds, played tight end and linebacker for three years at the University of Pittsburgh and won All-America ranking.

As a rookie with the Redskins in 1957, Walton was originally tried at left cornerback (Don Shula was the right cornerback) before being moved to his natural position, tight end.

His introduction to football came a lot earlier than that, though. Walton's father, Frank, was an all-America guard at Pittsburgh, played in the first College All-Star game in 1934 and went on to play for the Redskins when they were still the Boston Redskins. Walton's father, nicknamed "Tiger", served as a player/assistant coach when the team moved to Washington in 1944-45. In 1946, at the age of 11, Joe Walton started week-ending at Pittsburgh Steeler camps, where his father served as their offensive line coach.

The grandson of Italian immigrants, Walton's family came to this country with the surname Tataseo. "My grandfather, who came over when he was 17, changed our name," said Walton. "He was working on the railroad and I guess he wanted a name that was easier to pronounce. I heard he used Wilson first, but that was too common, and he kind of settled on Walton."

Although football is a very important part of Walton's life, he is a strong family man who enjoys spending time in his East Islip, NY home. Walton relaxes by jogging every day and playing golf in the offseason.

Walton was born Dec. 15, 1935 in Beaver Falls, PA. He and his wife, Ginger, have three children: daughters Jodi 22, Stacy 20 and son Joseph Jr. 13.

Mark Gastineau may be the best pass rusher that the league has ever seen. He draws some criticism as not being the complete DE, but the way the game is played today, he more than does his job.

—Former Miami all-pro LB Nick Buoniconti

Mark's got such fantastic quickness and he's so damn strong, too, and so fast. You don't always find that combination in a lot of guys. He can overpower you, but if you set up like he's going to bull rush you, he's so fast that he'll go around you. Gastineau is not overrated. He is in a class by himself.

—49er all-pro T Keith Fahnhorst

Mark is a dominant force because of his strength and mobility. He can get past almost any offensive tackle, because most of them don't have the speed to counteract him. Gastineau is tremendously quick, the kind of aggressive player capable of making great plays.

—New England QB Steve Grogan

The kids at Mt. Sinai have taught me a few things about courage and about endurance. I have watched them arrive day after day for a grueling series of tests and treatments and I try to give them a lift. It's something that gives me personal satisfaction.

—Mark Gastineau

The only way you can stop him, I guess, is to nail him in the backfield before he can find his holes. Freeman can run inside or outside equally well and if you can't get a good jam on him early, he's gone.

—New England LB Andre Tippett

A guy looks like he's got a shot at tackling him and he makes a great cut on him. Freeman gets into his holes so quickly, he doesn't need a big one.

—Giants NT Jim Burt

I have linemen that possess pride. They know that if I'm in back of them I can take full advantage of every block and crack, any bit of daylight that's there. They're confident in my ability to run the ball and it's their ability to block.

A lot of times before a back is going to make contact, he slows down. Tony, the closer he gets to his block, he accelerates. He gains speed. He tries to go through the guy.

If you look at the LBs in the game, they average about 6-3, 235. It's easy for Tony to get in underneath them. If I had to design a blocking FB, he would look like Tony Paige.

Pat may get blasted a few times, but he picks his butt up and still throws TD passes. He's like the captain of a ship. If the ship is going down, you know he's going to be the last one off.

When Pat takes the shots and gets back up and stands in there again, he's doing the things you need to be a good QB. He's willing to stand there when the blitz is coming straight at him. You go over the films and see stuff like that and it makes you work harder.

The active list maximums and cutdown dates for 1985 are:

August 20	70 players
August 27	60 players
September 2	45 players

TRADE DEADLINES

1984 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

Sept. 2, JETS 23, at INDIANAPOLIS 14 (60,398) — Indoors. A "Swarming Defense", a solid running game headed by Freeman McNeil (29-112) and the passing combination of Pat Ryan to Mickey Shuler helped lead the Jets to a 23-14 opening day victory over the Colts in the first regular season game in the Hoosier Dome. Trailing 7-0, Ryan hit Shuler with a 13-yard TD pass 7 seconds prior to the half to knot the score. Ryan followed a Pat Leahy 29-yard FG with an 8-yard TD pass to Shuler for a 3rd period 16-7 lead (the PAT failed). The Colts closed to 16-14 when they converted a fumbled punt return at the NY 5 into a TD, but Mark Gastineau's sack of QB Mike Pagel caused a fumble which was recovered at the 4 and returned by Greg Buttle for the insurance TD. New York's defense held the Colts to 122 yards total offense in the 2nd half (only 27 rushing) and came up with 3 FRs and 4 Gastineau sacks. Gastineau was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week. Ryan was 29-14-163-2-2 in his NFL debut as a starter.

Sept. 6, PITTSBURGH 23, at JETS 17 (70,564) — Cool and clear. "The whole damn offense, they stunk." It was simple, it was succinct. It was Joe Walton's summation of the offense against Pittsburgh which shut the door on the Jets' attack and ruined their debut at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands on a Thursday night national TV game, 23-17. The Jets could produce only 168 yards total offense and turned the ball over 4 times, the last on a "Hail Mary" pass on the game's final play. The most costly turnover, however, came with the Jets leading 14-13 following Bobby Humphery's 97-yard opening 2nd half kickoff return for a TD. QB Pat Ryan fumbled just after a Jets' interception at the NY42 and the Steelers recovered the bouncing ball at the NY13. David Woodley hit Weegie Thompson on a 3-yard "Alley Oop" TD pass and from then on the Jets' offense was limited to Pat Leahy's club record 52-yard FG.

Sept. 16, at JETS 43, CINCINNATI 23 (64,193) — Sunny and clear. "We got the other one-third of our team going," said Jets Joe Walton referring to the Jets' offense, "and with our special teams and defense continuing to play well, we put it all together. Our offensive line took the challenge and Pat Ryan had a good game," said Walton as the Jets improved their record to 2-1 with a 43-23 win over Cincinnati. The offense was propelled by Freeman McNeil's regular season high of 150 yards and Ryan's passing (33-20-251-0-1 TD to Mickey Shuler). The defense produced 4 int., 2 FRs and 2 sacks, both by Mark Gastineau who also pressured Ken Anderson into 2 int. leading to a Jet TD and FG. The special teams got KO returns of 46 and 73 yards and 19 points from Pat Leahy who tied the club single game scoring mark. Cincy led 16-13 on an 80-yard TD pass from Anderson to M.L. Harris on the opening play of the 3rd quarter, but the Jets delivered 30 straight points to put the game out of reach.

Sept. 23, JETS 28, at BUFFALO 26 (49,756) — Cloudy, warm and windy (31 mph gusts). Pat Ryan and Wesley Walker combined on 3 TD passes, Freeman McNeil ran for 112 yards and the defense held off a late Bills' rally in a game which saw the gusty winds play a large role as the Jets made it 2 in a row with a 28-26 win over Buffalo. In fact all but Buffalo's final 7 points came with the wind at the offensive teams' back. Trailing 10-0, the Jets exploded for 21 points in the 2nd quarter as Tony Paige concluded an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run. The big play of the march and maybe the game, was Paige's 23-yard run on a fake punt which led to the score. Ryan put the Jets ahead 14-10 on a 12-yard strike to Walker. He followed that 3 minutes later with a 44-yard bomb to Walker and a 21-10 lead. In the 3rd quarter, with the wind now at its back, Buffalo chipped away at NY's lead with 3 Joe Danelo FGs of 36, 27 and 20 as the Jets' defense stiffened at the J19, J10 and J4. The Jets gained the wind in the 4th quarter and Ryan and Walker did it for the 3rd time with a 35-yard TD pass for a 28-19 lead. Joe Ferguson, who had his 3rd best day in the pros with 31-46-340-0-2 TDs, produced the only score against the wind with a 31-yard TD pass to Julius Dawkins at 11:02 and the NY lead was narrowed to 2 points. The Jets held off 2 Bills' comeback tries with an interception and then on downs as Matt Kofler had to replace Ferguson who sprained his ankle and missed Buffalo's last 5 plays.

Sept. 30, at JETS 21, NEW ENGLAND 28 (68,978) — Sunny, cool, breezy. "The whole defense played poorly, very poor tackling and a very poor pass rush," said Joe Walton following the Jets' 28-21 loss to New England at the Meadowlands. The Jets' comeback fell short as Tony Eason led the Patriots with 28-42-354-0-3 TD. His 28 completions were a NE record. Eason brought the Pats from a 14-7 deficit with a 4-yard run just before the half ended and fired 2-3rd quarter TD passes of 4-yards to Bo Robinson and 43 to Stanley Morgan. Pat Ryan kept the Jets in the game with 20-31-297-1 int-2 TD (12-yards to Wesley Walker) and (7-yards to Mickey Shuler). NE's blitzing defense had 6 sacks and limited the AFC's leading rusher, Freeman McNeil, to 13-36. Injuries proved costly to the Jets who lost LB Lance Mehl (sprained ankle), CB Bobby Jackson (IR-hamstring) and RB Bruce Harper (knee for the season). The Jets had a final chance with 2:11 left to tie with a 1st down on the NE 15, but failed on downs.

Oct. 7, JETS 17, at KANSAS CITY 16 (51,843) — Sunny, hot. A revised defense bent but didn't break and the Jets' offensive line protected the quarterback and opened holes for the running of Freeman McNeil as the Jets recorded their 3rd straight road victory and boosted the New Yorkers record to 4-2 with 17-16 nail-biting victory over the Chiefs at Kansas City. Coach Joe Walton made changes at eight starting positions and the New York defense started slowly while the Chiefs offense came out smoking. KC drove to the J1, J24 and J3, but the Jet defense stiffened and forced the Chiefs to settle for 3 FGs and 9-0 lead. A Jet FG trimmed the lead to 9-3 and then the Jets took advantage of the game's biggest play when they recovered Theotis Brown's fumble at the K20 and scored 5 plays later for a 10-9 lead with only 31 seconds remaining in the half. The Jets took the 2nd half kickoff and upped their lead to 17-9 on Pat Ryan's 15-yard TD pass to Mickey Shuler. On the next series, New York drove to the K1, but was turned back on 4th down and had to hold on as KC rallied to 17-16 on Todd Blackledge's 1-yard TD pass to Willie Scott with 4:42 remaining. The Jets kept the ball for almost 4 minutes then stopped KC on downs at the K29 with a key play being Mark Gastineau's sack.

Oct. 14, JETS 24, at CLEVELAND 20 (55,673) — Cloudy, humid. The Jets fought back to take a 24-20 lead with less than 4 minutes remaining and then recorded 3 straight sacks to halt the Browns' final drive for their 5th win against 2 losses. It marked the New Yorker's 4th straight road victory and 5th come from behind triumph. The Jets mounted a 17-7 lead on a pair of TD runs of 3 and 8 yards by Freeman McNeil and a 30-yard Pat Leahy FG, but the Browns pecked away to 17-14 and then tied it at 17 on Matt Bahr's 49-yard FG and took an early 4th quarter lead on Bahr's 18-yard FG. After surviving a Bahr miss from the 31, the Jets drove 80 yards on 12 plays behind the running and receiving of Johnny Hector and the passing and running of QB Pat Ryan. Tony Paige provided the winning score on a 1-yard run. The Browns tried to strike back and moved to the J28 before the Jets recorded 3 straight sacks, 2 by NFL leader Mark Gastineau (nos. 11 & 12) that wrapped up the game. The Jets rushed for a season high of 192 yards against the Browns who entered the game with the AFC's No. 1 defense. AFC leader McNeil was 11-54-2 before leaving the game with a rib injury in the 1st half and Hector was 10-97 including a 64-yard run.

Oct. 21, at JETS 28, KANSAS CITY 7 (66,782) — Cloudy, humid. Jets turned in their most complete game of the year with strong performances by the offense, defense and special teams, in 28-7 win over the Chiefs at the Meadowlands. The victory brought the club's record to 6-2. The Jets jumped to a 7-0 lead on a 44-yard flea-flicker TD pass from Pat Ryan to Bobby Humphery on the first series and 59 seconds before the half increased margin to 14-0 on Ryan's 16-yard strike to TE Mickey Shuler which followed Russell Carter's 1st NFL int. Early in the 3rd quarter DT Tom Baldwin hit QB Bill Kenney who fumbled into the end zone where Mark Gastineau recovered for a TD. KC finally got untracked and scored in the opening minutes of the 4th quarter, but the Jets mounted an 11-play, 93-yard drive highlighted by Ryan's 3rd TD pass, a 39-yard toss to Cedric Minter on an all out blitz by KC and the Jets salted away the victory. Johnny Hector, playing for Freeman McNeil who was being rested because of a recurring rib injury, was 23-58 rushing and 5-53 receiving. NY's defense held KC to 205 yards total offense (121 rushing and a net 84 passing) and recorded 4 sacks, 1½ by Gastineau.

Oct. 28, at NEW ENGLAND 30, JETS 20 (60,513) — Cloudy, humid. "We played a good first half, but we made too many mistakes and were outplayed in the second half. It was the first time our special teams let us down a little bit, we had some poor tackling and our offense had some penalties," said Joe Walton in explaining the Jets' bowing to the Patriots after building a 20-3 lead in the first half. The Patriots, playing their first game under new head coach Raymond Berry, were flying high and picked at the Jets' lead until they overcame it in the 4th quarter and added an insurance TD to snap the New Yorker's 3-game win streak. Both teams moved to 6-3. The Jets gained their margin despite having Pat Ryan knocked from the game in the first quarter (concussion). Ken O'Brien saw his first extensive action and led NY to a pair of FGs of 46 and 18 yards and a 7-yard TD pass to Rocky Klever and a 2-yard TD run by Marion Barber. The Pats, taking advantage of a gusting wind, got a 47-yard FG from Tony Franklin, a 26-yard run by Craig James and then a 5-yard TD pass from Tony Eason to Stephen Starring to take a 23-20 lead and closed the case with Tony Collins' 4-yard TD run. The Jets stalled on their drives in the 2nd half and then Ryan re-entered the game in the 4th quarter, but couldn't rally the Club.

Nov. 4, MIAMI 31 at JETS 17 (72,655) — Cloudy and cool. The Jets rallied for a 17-14 lead with 9:31 left in the game, but with its decimated defensive secondary couldn't stem the tide and Dan Marino kept the Dolphins perfect record intact with a 31-17 victory. Following NY's go-ahead TD, a 6-yard run by Freeman McNeil (20-132), Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 47-yard TD pass when sub CB Davlin Mullen fell down. It took Miami only 1:37 to retake the lead. They added to it on a 30-yard FG and put the clincher on as they turned Pat Ryan's interception into a TD. Miami opened the scoring with a 37-yard TD pass from Marino to Nat Moore and the Jets came back on Ryan's 33-yard loss to Wesley Walker. Just before the half, NY took a 10-7 lead when they turned Russell Carter's int. into a 32-yard FG. The Jets missed a big opportunity to build on their lead when they failed to score after gaining a 1st down at the M8 as the Dolphins blocked Pat Leahy's 25-yard FG attempt. On the ensuing series Marino took the Dolphins 82 yards for a 14-10 lead. The Jets took their last lead of the game at 17-14 with the big play being a 24-yard run by Tony Paige on a fake punt. The hard-fought game saw the Jets lose the services of starting CBs Johnny Lynn and Russell Carter and starting FS Darrol Ray. Mark Gastineau had 1 sack, caused a fumble and put constant pressure on Marino.

Nov. 11, INDIANAPOLIS 9, at JETS 5 (51,066) — Heavy rain, cool. "This is the worst game I've ever been involved in, as a coach, assistant, head, period...the worst one," Joe Walton was being blunt and succinct in describing the Jets 3rd straight loss, a 9-5 defeat at the hands of the Colts. New York's offense could manage only a 27-yard FG (2 points came on a safety via a snap over the head of the punter), 143 yards of total offense—78 rushing by the AFC's no. 1 running team and a net of 65 yards passing. Playing in a heavy downpour, neither team moved the ball, but the Colts produced 3 FGs of 44, 46 and 25 and their defense sacked Jets' QBs Pat Ryan and Ken O'Brien 6 times and came up with 1 int. and 1 FR. NY was forced to play without starters, RB Freeman McNeil (ribs), LCB Johnny Lynn (ankle), RCB Russell Carter (ankle), FS Darrol Ray (foot) and RDT Marty Lyons (ankle). "We're a different team without Freeman," said Walton.

Nov. 26, at MIAMI 28, JETS 17 (74,884) — Warm. Dan Marino threw 4 TD passes tying the NFL record of 36 and led the Dolphins to a 28-17 win over the Jets in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins overcame early Jet leads of 7-0 and 10-7 and went ahead for good at 14-10 with 15 seconds remaining in the first half. They boosted the margin to 21-10 in the 3rd quarter. The Jets closed to 21-14 on the ensuing series, but Miami came right back on the next possession on Marino's 4th TD pass building the lead to 28-17 and repelled the Jets threats the rest of the way. The Jets' offense was led by 2nd year QB Ken O'Brien, who made his 2nd start of the season, (21-39-267-1 TD-2 int.) and Freeman McNeil (24-116 rushing and 3-64-1 TD receiving). McNeil set the Jets single season rushing record as he upped his total to 1028 surpassing John Riggins 1005. New York outgained Miami, 401 to 337 and held the ball 37 minutes to Miami's 23, but couldn't make the big plays on offense and defense. Marino's yardage total of 192 was his lowest of the season, but his 4 TDs spoke loud enough for the evening.

Dec. 2, GIANTS 20, at JETS 10 (74,975) — Partly cloudy "We beat ourselves...that's what happened," said a disappointed Joe Walton following the Jets 6th straight loss, a 20-10 defeat at the hands of their co-tenants, the Giants. "Our guys played pretty hard, but we played a good football team and we made too many mistakes." The Giants opened the scoring with a 1 yard TD run following a penalty of unsportsmanlike conduct against the Jets on a Giant FG. And then the Giants followed what might have been the game's biggest turning point, a Marion Barber fumble with the Jets driving, with a FG just before the half to take a 10-0 lead. "We had a chance to get some points on the board, but instead of getting something, they got 3 points," said Walton. The Giants stretched the margin to 17-0 with an 8-yard Joe Morris run in the 3rd quarter. The Jets and Giants traded FGs (43 by Pat Leahy) and (30 by Ali Haji-Sheikh) before Ken O'Brien and Lam Jones hooked up on a 32-yard TD play. The Giants then staved off 2 Jet comeback attempts first with a Mark Haynes interception at the goal line then a recovered Barber fumble at the G26. The Giants defense shut down the Jets running attack (20-67 and Freeman McNeil 14-42). McNeil suffered a cracked rib and was lost to the club for the rest of the season.

Dec. 8, at JETS 21, BILLS 17 (45,378) — Sunny. "It was a long time coming, but it was good to win one. We still made some mistakes, but overcame them with some hard, aggressive play," said Joe Walton as the Jets snapped a 6-game losing streak by coming from behind to beat Buffalo, 21-17 at the Meadowlands. While the defense blanked the Bills in the 2nd half, Ken O'Brien led the Jets to a pair of TDs—a 39-yard TD strike to Wesley Walker and Tony Paige's 3-yard run which gave the New Yorkers the lead at the 4:13 mark of the 4th quarter. Buffalo opened the scoring on a blocked punt return for a TD and the Jets tied it on Cedric Minter's 6-yard run which followed Bobby Humphery's 59-yard KOR. The Bills stretched the margin to 17-7 on Greg Bell's 3-yard run and Chuck Nelson's 47-yard FG. But after that NY's defense controlled the game holding Buffalo to 43 yards (10 passing and 33 running) and only 3 1st downs. O'Brien was 17-30-217-1-1. Johnny Hector (20-73) and Minter (14-58) took over the running chores for the injured Freeman McNeil.

WEEB EWBANK & JOE NAMATH — HALL OF FAMERS

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978. Joe Namath, his QB during that time, joined him in the Hall on Aug. 3, 1985.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues. Weeb took over a dismal Colts team in 1954 and built them to NFL champs in 1958-59. He joined the Jets in 1963 and developed the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Namath, the Jets' all-time passing leader with 1,886 of 3,762 for 27,663 and 173 TDs, was a Pro Bowl selection 5 times in his career and was the first QB to pass for more than 4,000 yards (1967 in a 14-game season). He was MVP in the Super Bowl III victory.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981 — SHEA STADIUM

BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TDs and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 9, 1983 — CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl tournament. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with Freeman McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 21 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 15, 1983 — LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets spring upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 23, 1983 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.
